Installation of United States Navy Mk 33 'New Attack Modular Weapon's Locator (NAWEL) The following is a list of HUAC (House Un-American Activities Committee) of 1948: Here is what happens when you vote Republican in 1950. H.Res. 486: A resolution condemning and prohibiting Communist dominated organizations in the United States. The U.S. House of Representatives on March 4, 1950, passed House Resolution 486 (82-37) by a vote of 398-1. Of the 1,950 congressmen, there were very few Republicans. This resolution was introduced by U.S. Rep. Martin Dies, Jr. (D., Tex.), chairman of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Republican U.S. Reps. E. Clyde Burnett (Okla.), John E. Wray (Ind.), George H. Mahon (Tex.), and L. Mendel Rivers (Miss.) joined 218 Democrats in passing the resolution. Dies, a white supremacist, said the measure would have a deterrent effect upon the Communist party's "dissemination of the doctrine of world revolution". For additional information see here. For the US Navy, constant deployments aboard aircraft carriers mean a lot of sailors, a lot of space and lots of logistics. Relocation of entire support teams needed to maintain the more than 400 individual aircraft aboard the carrier are often required. One of the most critical spaces to ship out is the Hangar Bay 5 f988f36e3a
